SNHR & DCHRS | Syria | Report on the Salah Addein Massacre |

===

The Syrian regime perpetrates massacre after another as the world stands silent ... a report on the Salah Addein Massacre.

After Friday prayer, Salah Addein neighbourhood residents took to the streets in protests, most massive of which marched from the mosques of Bilal and al-Nasir Salah Addein.

Protesters marched chanting slogans condemning the homicide perpetrated against the Syrian people, demanding the toppling of the Syrian regime and demanding freedom and dignity for the Syrian people. Suddenly, 4 armoured vehicles, affiliated to the regime's army, arrived and opened machinegun fire at protesters killing 8 of whom in few minutes, and targeted anyone who tried to aid them. Paramedics and locals affirmed that most of the gunshots were to the head and the chest.

The Syrian Network for Human Rights (SNHR) & Damascus Centre for Human Rights Studies (DCHRS) strongly condemn this scarcely-matched massacre which amounts to a crime against humanity as well as all the massacres perpetrated by the Syrian regime against the Syrian people round the clock. SNHR & DCHRS hold the Syrian regime and Bashar al-Assad, head of state and Commander-in-Chief of the Syrian regime army, completely and directly responsible for all of those massacres and their implications and consequences. SNHR & DCHRS call on the United Nations and the UN Security Council to take all necessary measures to protect civilians in Syria and to fulfil their legal and moral responsibilities by accelerating the referral of all the individuals who committed these crimes to the International Criminal Court (ICC).
