good greeting:

The Syrian Syrians Union defends the detainees through the # Where_Syrian Detainees campaign

The suffering of the families and families of the detainees, including innocent youth women, children, elders and

They have no guilt for their arrest and their enforced disappearance except that they are ruled by a rogue and sectarian regime and a main pillar of international terrorism led by Russia and Iran.

They were stranded and knocked on all the doors in international forums to put an end to the suffering of their children in the detention camps of the Assad militia, but to no avail .

We urge you to request to stand by them and shoulder the responsibilities of the implementation of international and humanitarian law, in particular the Security Council resolutions, especially resolution 2254 and the above negotiating items 12, 13 and 14

Article 12 relates to the release of detainees. On the other hand, the High Commissioner for Human Rights noted that the crime of enforced disappearance is still ongoing and does not come to a statute of limitations, that the Assad militia must open its secret prisons, release the detainees and bring the guilty in this case to justice. Syrians and oblivious to punishing the guilty,

Mr. Secretary-General, I have recommended the referral of the Syrian file to the International Criminal Court or the establishment of a special tribunal in Syria, such as the Hariri tribunal, but it is not time for these detainees who are under the control of their Assad's executioners, especially women and children.
